GERMANY, FRANCE AND AUSTRIA.

THE LUXEMBOURG QUESTION IN THE NORTH GERMAN PARLIAMENT—ALLIANCE BETWEEN PRUSSIA AND AUSTRIA.

(By Steamer.)

NEW YORK, April 13.—The steamship Deutschland, from Southampton on the 28th ult., arrived to-night.

The Paris correspondent of the Standard says the feeling is unanimous that the French Government stands committed to a step as regards Luxembourg which, whilst it fails to allay the apprehension and irritation caused by the aggrandizement of Prussia, is regarded as likely to precipitate an European war. The official Gazette of Holland positively denies that the Duchy has been ceded to France, and adds that there can only be a question of such a cession if the great powers who are interested have first come to an understanding on the subject.

A telegram from Luxemburg says handbills are circulated in that town in favor of annexation to France, and instigating the inhabitants to acts of violence against the Prussians. Four regiments of hussars who garrison the fortress have attempted revolt.

In the North German Parliament Herr Von Beringsen asked Bismarck whether there was any truth in the rumor of negotiations between Holland and France for the cession of Luxemburg, and whether Prussia is prepared to say it will withstand any attempt to sever Luxemburg from the rest of Germany. Beringsen's motion declares also that all parties would be united in giving their utmost powerful support to prevent the separation of the ancient land from the rest of Germany.

Rumors are prevalent in Vienna that a preliminary treaty of alliance has been agreed upon between Prussia and Austria. The official gazette denies this in toto.

The new bill was introduced in the Hungarian Parliament for recruiting the army.

The Emir of Bokhara has been defeated by the natives of one of his provinces and forced to allow it to become an independent state.

The resignation of Count Walewski, was caused by his non-approval of the army organization project, as originally proposed. He would not brow-beat the minority in the legislative chamber, and strove to act with perfect partiality as its president.

BERLIN, April 1st.—Herr Von Berrengen's motion was put to-day. Berengsen said: We wish for peace, but will not shirk from war, if it be necessary to repel the very first attemp of France to attack our honor. Let us give a speedy and resolute answer to the warlike tendencies of France, and we shall stifle them in the bud.

Bismarck in his reply said: The Prussian government did not know that an arrangement for the cession of the Duchey had been concluded between Holland and France, but the federal allied goveanment believe that no foreign power will endanger the undisputed right of Germany. They hope to protect these rights more safely by peaceful means.

Vienna correspondence says the Austrian Embassador at Berlin has been instructed to declare to the Prussian government that in the hour of danger Austria will stand by Germany. It is thought the object of the visit of the Crown Prince of Saxony to Berlin was to announce the military of Saxony, organized as federal troops.

ENGLISH PRESS ON THE ACQUISITION OF RUSSIAN AMERICA.

The London News of the 2d says editorially: Russian America has been achieved by its natural purchaser, a great progressive power, of whose advances we cannot complain, so long as they are achieved by legitimate means.

The Times says on the same subject: Since we have no right to protest against an act entirely within the discretion of the Russian and United States governments, let us not place ourselves in a false position by vain remonstrances. Let us forbear to fasten upon this unexpected transaction a hostile construction, or to insist upon rights and interests which are incapable of being maintained.

The keepers of similar places having received a brief warning of what was going on, bolted their doors against all comers—police included.

FREEDMEN SPEAKING OUT.

Mass Meeting at Augusta—Republican Party to be Supported—Conservative Speeches of No Effect.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

AUGUSTA, GA., April 13.—At a mass meeting of freedmen to-day, about one thousand were present. Resolutions were received, the substance of which were as follows: That the loyal citizens of Georgia should give their united and combined support to the Union and Republican party; that there should be no distinction on account of race or color in the enjoyment of political rights; that the right of voters gives the right to sit on juries; that corporeal punishment should be abolished, being a relic of barbarism; that the widows and orphans of those who died in crushing the rebellion are entitled to the nation's protection and gratitude; and that the national debt is a sacred obligation.

J. L. Shipton, colored, spoke in support of the resolutions, but his remarks were conservative. Gov. Johnston understood the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of advising and consulting with colored people in order to form a common platform on which white and black could secure equal justice before the law and work in harmony together. He was surprised to find the meeting called merely for party purposes. He, therefore, spoke reluctantly and under disadvantages. Had he known the programme had been previously arranged, he would not have been present. He had been politely invited, however, and did not feel able to decline. He spoke not for purpose of defeating the object of the resolutions, but advising for the best interests of the colored race. He advised them to be sober and industrious, and exercise the right of franchise judiciously; to avoid the wicked designs of men who were in their midst to sow discord and strife. He believed the good and intelligent white men South would do justice to the negroes. He would do all in his power to improve the race in the social and political scale. There is, and should be, no antagonism between races; their interests are the same, and there should be mutual confidence and harmony. He earnestly hoped both races would be friends and co-laborers in working out the great problem of regenerating the South.

Judges Starns and Hilyard followed, and were in favor of harmony and good feeling. Simeon Beards and other colored speakers favored the Republican party and the passage of the resolutions supporting that party.

The preamble and resolutions were adopted.

Governor Jenkins has written an address to the people of Georgia, advising non-action under Sherman's bill, until the legality of the bill is tested before the Supreme Court. He considers the law as unconstitutional, and has strong hopes the Supreme Court will so decide.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

Of this sum California sends in gold, $30,000, or increased to currency, $40,000, New York $1,300, and country east and west, $74,000. A Mother and Daughter Charged with Murdering a Husband and Father.

We recently referred to the death of Mr. John Young, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., from the effects of poison. The Whig, just received, furnishes the following additional particulars:

Mr. Young became suddenly ill after eating some cakes, supposed to have contained poison, and also the other members of the family—his case was regarded of a more serious nature than the others; he began to recover and was thought, by his phisician, to be out of danger; he took a relapse, and was again very ill—indications of cause—a fresh dose of poison; nature of poison—arsenic—he again seemed to recover and was considered out of danger, when he, for the third time, became worse and died; third attack also indicated a fresh and increased dose of poison; again arsenic. The arsenic was purchased at Mr. Jacob Snyder's drug store, by the oldest daughter of the deceased, by orders of Mrs. Young; three papers or an ounce and a half was the amount bought; the purpose for which it was bought was to kill rats. The arsenic was brought home and carefully placed in a drawer in Mr. Young's room, and the package never opened. After the "cake poisoning" the package was burned—one of the family said it was Tuesday of last week, and another testified that it was on some day of the week before. Dead rats were seen about the house; but they came to their death by a decoction of "Costar's rat exterminator," used for the purpose of "bating the rats or drawing them on." The poison which was said to be in the cakes was mixed with some cream of tartar, in a bottle, which was at once destroyed. The attending physician testified that death was the result of poison; all the symptoms of the disease went to show that more than one dose was administered and that he received evidently a dose on Thursday, of which he died. Mrs. Young stated that she alone nursed her husband during his illness and prepared his food.

The jury, after hearing all the testimony in the case, rendered a verdict that "John Young came to his death by poison administered by some person or persons to the jury unknown."

On Monday evening information was made and a warrant issued for the arrest of Mrs. Young and her daughter, Maria. The parties were permitted, however, to remain at home, that they might have a hearing before his Honor, Judge Taylor.

This sad case is clothed throughout in dark mystery, and we can only hope that the matter will have a fair and thorough investigation, and if the unfortunate parties charged with this heinous crime are innocent they should be honorably acquitted and their innocence proclaimed. Mr. Young was regarded as one of our best citizens, he was a good husband and an indulgent parent, and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

Judgment Day in the Criminal Court.

Jury trials having closed in the Criminal Court, and Judge Sterrett desiring to be absent this week, on Saturday he pronounced judgment in pending cases, as follows:

THE UNLAWFUL COHABITANT.

Charles Konescamp, whose illegal cohabitation, in South Pittsburgh, with one Catherine Donaldson, resulted in his indictment for fornication and bastardy, and his conviction of the first branch of the charge, escaping the other through the statute of limitation, was first called. He was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars, for the use of the Directors of the Poor of the county.

A SOLDIER BOY TO THE REFUGE.

Ovid Rigby, convicted as one of the parties who robbed the stationery store of Mr. Aiken, on Fifth steet—and acquitted on one or more like charges—was second on the list, and made a statement. He said he was within a month or two of eighteen years of age, and went to the army from New Castle, Lawrence county, enlisting as a drummer boy in Gen. Collier's (139th) Regiment. He is an orphan, and since his discharge from the army has resided in the city. He did not know whether he was guilty of the larceny or not, not being concerned in the original taking. He took the articles from his brother, after they had been taken by him from the store. It did not appear that he had offended previously, and the Court thinking the jail a bad school, and hesitating to send him to the Penitentiary, finally directed that he be taken to the House of Refuge, there to seek reformation in company with his brother, recently consigned to that institution.

A SINGULAR CASE.

Singular, only, from the suspicion created that those whose duty it was to bring offenders to punishment sought by the arrest of the accused to arrange matters for their private gain. James McCoy, a huckster in the Diamond market, and residing in Pipetown, was convicted a short time since of the larceny of a box of turkeys, laid as the property of Thomas Ryan, also a huckster, but residing in an adjoining county. The circumstance transpired about Christmas last. McCoy stated that he was taken to Alderman Donaldson's office, where he saw Ryan, the prosecutor, and "a man named Miller." They (Miller and Ryan) had a conversation in the "little back room," and the Alderman remarked "you had better be careful what you are doing." McCoy said he then "began to look about himself," and went out of the office. There was more conversation, and, said McCoy, the Alderman refused to do anything unless he (McCoy) would swear not to say anything about it. McCoy refused at first, but afterwards agreed to keep quiet. He gave the man Miller all the money he had in bank, $300 28, when the Alderman changed the bail taken for McCoy's appearance, substituting the "man Miller" for Dr. T. J. Gallaher. Subsequently Miller returned $140 of the money, the remainder not being accounted for, excepting that it was said twenty-five dollars had been given to some person present at the Alderman's office at the time of the "arrangement." The Court was satisfied that McCoy had been badly used, and in consideration of this sentenced him to undergo but thirty days imprisonment in the jail. "Thank your Honor, sir; but I should be allowed something for the time I have been in jail," said McCoy as he started with a tipstave for the prison.

THE STEWARTSTOWN CASE.

Philip Heist was the next unfortunate brought before the bar. He had been indicted for assault and battery with intent to rape Mrs Sarah S. Smith, but the jury found the degree of his guilt to consist in simple assault and battery, and recommended him to mercy. The Court did not see that there was anything in the case to justify the exercise of mercy. Admitting the woman to be all that was claimed, a drunken wanton, the conduct of the accused was inexcusable, and under the testimony he might have been convicted as indicted. The sentence of the Court was that Heist pay a fine of two hundred dollars, and undergo four months imprisonment in the jail.

APPLICATION TO REDUCE BAIL.

W. C. Moreland, Esq., made an application for the reduction of the bail of Thomas Hughes, committed to answer a charge of felonious assault and battery. Mayor McCarthy had fixed the amount at $1,500, but the accused was unable to give more than $800, and the desire was to have it reduced to that figure. Judge Sterrett said he was not inclined to go behind the commitment. If the charge was felonious assault and battery, the bail was not more than sufficient. Mr. Moreland said the Mayor in fixing the amount had in view another matter entirely foreign to the proceeding, and had since ascertained that certain suspicions were groundless. The Mayor had expressed a willingness to reduce the bail, but was prevented from so doing by the case having passed out of his hands, the information having been returned to Court. Judge Sterrett consented to hear the prosecutor, Mr. Dingeldein, who detailed the circumstances of the assault upon him. He was waiting at a saloon on St. Clair street to take the Troy Hill cars, and as he passed out the door he was struck a violent blow in the face and knocked down, and whilst down was kicked several times about the head. From the effect of the violence received he was confined to his house for about a week. A short time previous he met Hughes on the cars, in an intoxicated condition, and declined engaging in conversation with him, which he seemed to desire. Hughes became angry, and remarked that he would "fix him for it." Just before the assault he had not noticed Hughes, but there were parties present who saw him strike the blow. The District Attorney resisted the application, and referred to the antecedents of Hughes, with which the Court were also acquainted. He referred to his conviction for homicide. Mr. Moreland thought this had nothing to do with the present case. The Court refused to reduce the bail, thinking it not more than sufficient under the circumstances as detailed by Mr. Dingeldein.

THE LAWRENCE COUNTY HOMICIDE.

William Seibert, the old man convicted of murder in the second degree, for the killing of Patrick Cullegan, was called for sentence. The shooting, it will be recollected occurred in Lawrence county. Cullegan dying of his wound in the Mercy Hospital, of this city. The prisoner had been recommended to mercy by the jury. Judge Sterrett said he was very sorry indeed to see so old a man charged with such a crime, committed under the circumstances developed. He had kept a tavern, where deceased and others had been in the habit of getting liquor. To get liquor appeared to have been the object of deceased at the time of the occurrence, and for no cause whatever, so far as the evidence went, the prisoner took a gun and shot him. That he was not shot dead on the shot was through no benevolent intention on the part of the prisoner. His Honor failed to see much in the case to commend the accused to mercy, but taking all the circumstances surrounding it into consideration, the case was a most aggravated one. The sentence of the Court was that the prisoner undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for the period of eight years.

FLANNER, THE FORGER.

The case of Thomas W. Flanner, convicted of uttering a forged bill of exchange on St. Louis, with intent to defraud Joseph Dilworth, of this city, it will be recollected was postponed for two weeks, at the instance of his counsel, A. G. Cochran, Esq., in order to enable him to make good his allegation that the bill of exchange was genuine, and to produce testimonials as to his good character. Saturday the two weeks expired, and the prisoner having failed to come up to his representations, further postponement of sentence was refused. The motion and reasons filed for a new trial were withdrawn by Mr. Cochran. The prisoner, who is a man past middle age, and looks to be more than ordinarily shrewd, had a few words to say. He said he had expected to establish what he represented by his son-in-law, who resided at St. Louis, and was engaged in the river trade, but he had as yet received no reply to letters forwarded. He could offer no other explanation than that his son-in-law might have been absent from home. What further he said as to the matter, was a repetition of what had been said by his counsel in arguing that there was no "legal proof" of the forgery. He said he had been in the army and had held high positions. Colonel Duff (the District Attorney) might perhaps have heard of him at Cairo during the war. Col. Duff did not remember him. There was, however, another Col. Duff who figured in the vicinity of Cairo. The Court had no doubt whatever that the prisoner was convicted properly, and therefore sentenced him to the Penitentiary for five years.

THE "BOWERY SALOON."

Edward Barker, convicted of selling liquor without license at the "Bowery Saloon" on Fifth street, was present for sentence, being under bail. The fact appearing that he was sentenced, on October 22d, on indictments for selling in August and July previous, to pay the full penalty of the law, and the indictments now considered being for selling in September and October, the Court thought it might be a hardship to again sentence him, inasmuch as it did not appear that he had offended since his sentence on the 22d of October. It was, therefore, concluded to let the cases go over.

James Williams, also convicted for selling at the "Bowery" was called. Judge Sterrett said the Court only desired to compel the observance of the law. The fact could not be disputed that the "Bowery saloon" was kept open continually, in defiance of the law. As to the sale of the saloon, that was no doubt not bona fide. The sentence of the Court was that Williams should pay a fine of $100, and undergo two months imprisonment in the county jail.

Mayor Morrison entertained on Saturday a rather complicated case, the circumstances of which we will briefly detail: Some three years ago Henry Smith took for a wife Nellie Collam, and has latterly been residing in the Second Ward, Allegheny. We cannot state what is his occupation, but he is one of the considerable portion of tradesmen now on a "strike." His mother-in-law was one of his household, and seems to have had things pretty much all her own way. Being out of work, of course the should-be lord of his own house became short of funds, and as supplies became scant, the mother-in-law became fault-finding, and annoyed her son-in-law by unwarranted flings as to his shortcomings. As an addition to his responsibilities, Henry's father, "Shellbark" Smith, and his brother, Alfred Smith, quartered upon him, and to cap the climax, culminate his troubles, another individual, by name G. W. Collam, the husband of Henry's mother-in-law, and of course his father-in-law, made his appearance and took lodgings. Henry's previous knowledge of him was rather limited, having understood that he existed, but that a divorce had caused his absence. There had been troubles prior to the coming of Henry's father and brother, more followed their advent, but when the head of the house of Collam appeared, the pot boiled over. Henry's hospitality had been put to the test, and he required, as the first step towards restoring order in his domicil, that the Collams should vacate. Blows followed hard words, and Henry, as was alleged, struck his father-in-law on the head with a billet of wood. The wife of the assailant, and the daughter of the assailed, went to the rescue of the latter, when Alfred Smith seized her, and, she alleges, caught her by the throat, and besides choking and scratching, uttered terrible threats. The row resulted in the arrest of Henry Smith on a charge of assault and battery, on the oath of his father-in-law, and of Alfred Smith, on the complaint of Henry's wife, who swore her life against him. Upon a hearing of the cases, Mayor Morrison held the parties to answer at Court. From the above recital it may be inferred that there was a lively time in the Smith-Collam family.

Terrible Accident on the Central Railroad—Engineer Killed—Three Other Men Injured.

Locomotive No. 373 of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, having taken a loaded coal train from the Shafton works to Derry station, on Friday night was backing in without cars for the purpose of taking out another train. Shortly after ten o'clock, when nearing Shafton, a short distance beyond Irwin's, the locomotive ran over a mule and horse, encountered on the track, and was thrown off, falling upon its side. On the engine were the engineer, Mark O. Knowlton, the fireman, Samuel Reese, the conductor, Joseph W. Nichlin, and a brakesman named Scanlon. The engineer was instantly killed, almost cut to pieces, and his body so mangled as to be scarcely recognizable. The Conductor was scalded and bruised, and also the fireman and brakesman, but none of them seriously. Knowlton, the engineer, was unmarried, and resided with his father, near Johnstown, whither his remains were taken. Justice John M. Laird, of Greensburg, held an inquest on the body, the jury finding a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Nichlin and Scanlon, were brought to Allegheny city, where they reside, and were attended by Drs. Dickson and Hamilton.

The engine and also three cars on the track near where the casualty occurred, were badly wrecked, and both tracks completely obstructed. The obstruction however was speedily removed, and the tracks repaired by six o'clock Saturday morning.

Novel Method of Collecting a Bill.

Any man who could do so mean a thing as cut his boarding bill upon a widow having a large family to support through her exertion, is worthy of any punishment imaginable. On Saturday afternoon we were fortunate enough to be a witness to the public disgrace of a quantity of flesh, bones and broadcloth which might pass current for a man. It appears this fellow had cut stick, leaving a large bill of boarding unpaid, and the landlady meeting him on Fifth street, dunned him, in a manner to attract quite a crowd, for a settlement of his account. He tried to git away, but was hemmed in, and forced to stand the torrent of richly earned abuse which the lady showered upon him. Finally she succeeded in urging a "V" from him and was about getting more when the police interfered and dispersed the crowd. The fellow retired about as well used up a specimen of gentility as we have ever seen in our travels. The energetic landlady, who is in poor circumstances and has a large family of small children to support, went home much delighted with her success in collecting a part of a bad bill.

Fashionable Millinery.

Elsewhere we publish the card of Mrs. L. C. O'Reilly, fashionable milliner, No. 20 Diamond alley. This lady has long enjoyed a high reputation for the taste, style and general excellence of the millinery articles of dress turned from her establishment, while her prices have always been found most reasonable and moderate. Mrs. O'Reilly has recently made decided improvements in her store, thus enlarging her facilities for meeting the requirements of the great share of patronage bestowed her. Her stock of bonnets, misses' hats, and all descriptions of head gear for our dear wives and daughters, will be found unequaled, embracing the very latest styles introduced from the metropolitan cities of the old world. Ladies desiring anything in the way of "sweet little bonnets" should call in and examine the choice assortment to be found at Mrs. O'Reilly's, and inquire her prices before purchasing elsewhere. We can, from long dealing and acquaintance, commend Mrs. O'Reilly to the patronage of our readers, knowing her to be always up to the fashion, and a fair dealing and honorable business lady, with whom it is a pleasure to deal.

Murder at Hamilton, Ohio.

A few evenings since the American Saloon, kept by Aaron Lawson, at Hamilton, Ohio, was the scene of an encounter of the most dangerous character. During the day Thomas McGehan became involved in a difficulty with a young man named James McCartin, and the latter was rather roughly handled. In the evening, McCartin, in company with a number of his friends, found McGehan at Lawson's saloon and the quarrel was renewed. Both parties drew pistols, and a number of shots were fired and blows struck. Patrick McCartin received a flesh wound in the neck, and a man named Harrison received a slight wound in the foot. The principals in the difficulty escaped all injury from bullets. Many of those who took part in the affray were under the influence of liquor, and had been during the day. Lawson's saloon was pretty well riddled with bullets and injured by flying missiles. William Myers, who chanced to be present, received a pistol ball in the abdomen, from the effects of which he expired next morning.

Soiree Musicale.

We take pleasure in announcing that a grand musical entertainment will be given at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening, the 23d inst., for the benefit of the poor, without distinction of creed or color. The Misses, Caroline and Helen McCaffry, of Philadelphia, will sing on the occasion. Miss Caroline is a cantatrice of rare and exquisite cultivation. Many of our readers still remember her rendering of "He was despised," from the Messiah, with such thrilling effect, at the sanitary fair, which gem she will repeat, by particular request. Miss Helen possesses a superb soprano voice.

Miss Hattie Jones, Messrs. Apfelbaum and Mellor, and Prof. Manning, the well known violinist, will kindly contribute their services. The concert will be given under the direction of Prof. L. C. Honghanont, the well known organist of St. Peters Church.

House Painting.

The season for renovating our dwellings and places of business with paint is at hand, and persons desiring the services of first class painters will do well to call upon our friends M'Cowan & Snyder, No. 65 north side of the Diamond, Allegheny. They have long enjoyed a high reputation for the excellence of their work, and using nothing but the very best quality of materials, they give entire satisfaction to all who favor them with orders. House, sign and decorative painting attended to on the shortest order. Commercial and glass signs of the neatest and most artistic styles made to order, and a full supply of window glass, putty and mixed paints, kept constantly on hands. Give this firm a call.

Death from Apoplexy.

John O'Conner, about twenty-three years of age, died rather suddenly at the residence of his father, constable Thomas O'Conner, on Ross street, Saturday evening. A medical examination revealed the fact that apoplexy was the cause of death, and such was the verdict of an inquest summoned by Coroner Clawson. Deceased was in the army, and received a wound in battle which necessitated the amputation of one of his legs. It is stated that he never fully recovered from the effects of the chloroform administered in order to perform the operation, its effects being shown at times in nervousness, and it is thought may have contributed to his sudden demise.

To-day is the second anniversary of the death of Abraham Lincoln.

An Alderman in Durance.

It has been stated that Alderman Lynch, of the Third Ward, was prosecuted for a misdemeanor before Alderman McMasters by John C. McCarthy, Esq., with whom he had a difficulty, and also that he failed to put in an appearance at the time fixed for a hearing. Saturday evening the gentleman who had become security for the accused Alderman's appearance, went before Alderman McMasters and took out a bail piece, upon which Lynch was arrested and lodged in the county jail. He was released, however, the Clerk of the Court, by direction of the District Attorney, taking what was deemed good and sufficient bail for his appearance at Court. Mr. Lynch, on the next occasion, will doubtless bear in mind that although holding a commission as Alderman he is as amenable to the law as other common people, and quite as much in duty bound to appear to answer a charge brought against him. Had he appeared according to the condition of the bond, he would have avoided the mortification he may now feel concerning what followed as the result of his neglect or indifference.

Death of William Bullock, the Inventor of Bullock's Press.

We are pained to announce the death of the great mechanic and inventor William Bullock, Esq., which took place in Philadelphia, from the effects of an accident, on Friday afternoon last. The deceased ranked high among the celebrated mechanics of the age, and has left as a monument to his inventive genius the famous Bullock press, which is one of the greatest pieces of scientific mechanism extant. The press is being generally introduced and it is a great cause for regret that its inventor did not live longer to enjoy the triumph of his handiwork. Mr. Bullock's loss will be deeply felt throughout the country, and nowhere more than in this section, where he numbered a host of friends. Mr. Shellaby, of the well known dry goods firm of Shellaby & Young, Market street, is married to the daughter of the deceased. Mr. Bullock, we believe, was buried in Philadelphia.

An Alleged "Shover" Arrested.

Government detectives on Saturday arrested Dr. Smith, of Lawrenceville, (not unknown to fame in the same connection,) in a store on Smithfield street, in the act of "shoving" a counterfeit fractional currency note of "fifty cents" denomination. It was known that he had passed one of similar description on the 10th instant, in the Fifth ward, and the detectives "shadowed" him. The result of their watchfulness was his opportune arrest as stated. Upon searching his person a package of counterfeit currency, to the amount of some sixty dollars, was found, so that there may be said to be a pretty sure case, or, as the detectives say, "they have the dead wood against him." He was committed to jail for a hearing by Commissioner Bailey. The counterfeit money found is pretty well executed, and might readily pass with others than experts.

Hours—9 A. M. to 5 P. M., daily. Office—Merchants Hotel, Pittsburgh.

The First Locomotive built in Pittsburgh, says the Chronicle, was turned out a few days ago. By their charter of incorporation, the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company is prohibited from building locomotives, and at their shops in the Ninth ward ostensibly do nothing more than repair them; but the fact will scarcely be disputed that the repairing has been done almost if not quite to the extent of turning out new engines. The works in Manchester, where the engine referred to was built, for the Pan Handle road, are now in full operation, with a capacity for turning out at least one locomotive each week.

Broke Jail.—On Friday afternoon last three prisoners broke out of the Lebanon prison by removing stones enough from the wall surrounding the yard to permit their egress. They were observed immediately after they stepped out of their confinement, and an exciting pursuit was commenced, and in a few minutes they were all back in their quarters, sadder, if not wiser, men.

Sewickly Borough.—On petition presented, the Court of Quarter Sessions, on Saturday, appointed Messrs. Theadore H. Nevin, William Harbaugh, Jos. S. The fast sports of Wheeling have discovered a new method of whiling away time. They rob the churchyards of dead infants and hack them to pieces, to see how bodies are made up. A case of this kind has just been brought to light. The cruel fellows are neither doctors nor medical students.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

MONDAY, APRIL 15, 1867.

THE English government now manifests a decided disposition to adjust the Alabama claims, which was indignantly refused even a consideration two years ago. Does this improved temper grow out of the serious complications which now threaten to involve all the European powers in a gigantic struggle? Be this as it may, the second sober thought is frequently as advantageous to governments as to individuals.

THE New York Constitutional Convention bids fair to be an assembly of notables. Not only the State Convention, in selecting men to serve as delegates at large, but the District Conventions, in selecting the local delegates, exhibit a laudable disposition to select the best talent and character. The work of revising the organic law is of serious moment, and rises far above the consideration of party. From its nature, it is destined to last for a considerable period, and to advance or retard the progress of the whole people.

WHEN the Russian treaty was first brought before the Senate it encountered a degree of opposition little short of unanimous. As the debate upon it proceeded, this opposition was converted into favor, insomuch that when the vote was taken only two voices pronounced against it. What considerations wrought this surprising change? Do they relate purely to natural topics, as fertility of the soil, richness of wines, excellence of fisheries? It does not seem probable, if these were the matters which influenced the Senators, that continued secrecy was necessary or politic. Why not let the eople see the treaty, and understand on hat facts, arguments or appeals it was arried. Are there political reasons beind that make the purchase desirable? oes the present attitude of the British inistry touching the Alabama claims, nd its solution in the facts underlying he treaty?

The Senate sometimes complains that t is not treated with sufficient openness y the President; that it is compelled to olicit information of him relative to matters of great pith and moment in the most deferential manner, and then to ave it withheld if he sees fit to take shelter behind the plea that to communicate the facts would be detrimental to the public service. The Senate, in this instance treats the people no whit better. It has done a thing which they generally disapprove, and yet, after the transaction is closed out, refuses to make any revelations tending to satisfy a laudable curiosity.

PROGRESS.

Among the encouraging signs of the times, is the admirable adaptation of the Christian system to the wants of this progressive age, as the exigencies arise. While the same elements always existed in the Christian religion, yet they have never been developed so fully until these latter days. The Church, through various instrumentalities, is reaching all the ramifications of the social fabric, molding and shaping its crude elements into form and beauty. Heretofore the churches were content to follow the beaten track of duty, careful to avoid what was termed new fangled notions, and were conservative to a high degree; and dreading radical notions. Now the Church, while recognizing the revealed will of God, is at the same time using the tact and wisdom of the world in the work of doing good, eschewing the stumbling stone of conservatism, and encouraging the healthy throb of reform and progression. These expanded views are making an impression on the world, and will in time produce a rich fruitage.

It is a fact that is highly significant, and one too frequently overlooked, that the bulk of the generous gifts to benevolent objects, outside of the contributions to Church interests, such as for educational purposes, and to relieve suffering humanity, in mind and body, are by Christians, showing conclusively that Christianity has practical elements far above the range of the mere wordling. These things crop out in various forms, as for instance the interest taken to relieve the freedmen, and by the use of means to interest and control the morals and pursuits of the young men of the day.

With the enlargement of the scope of work by Young Men's Christian Associations, many things heretofore either wholly neglected or but partially accomplished, are now successfully attained. In some places the lack of educational advantages, ornamental and practical, imperfectly supplied by our school system, is now secured through the gratuitous facilities furnished by this organization. The important work of supplying healthy food, at low rates, at places free from the temptations incident to such places generally, and the providing of means to feed and elevate the mind, is an accomplished fact in some communities, through the medium of this institution. At other points simple and innocent amusements are encouraged with a view to engage minds which need such employment in connection with the sterner duties of life. It is well, so long as this undenominational Christian organization, while using every possible means to lift society up to a higher level, should also adhere strictly to the cardinal principles of the Christian system. It is but right thus to blend the principles of Christianity, not by ignoring it, but by associating the Christian system with the noble objects of the day. Anything that will do good is worthy to succeed, and will in time.

The inauguration of the "Pittsburgh Church Guild," by the Episcopalians of this community, shows a happy union of religious duties with the cheerful phases of life. And such things are elements of powor, which grow rapidly, and become formidable by such associated efforts in the course of time. Such forethought by our Episcopal friends will tend to accomplish a vast amount of good to that denomination, and the public generally. Its incipient days were not marked with any degree of success, and the experiment seemed for a while to be in great jeopardy. Commencing at first with a handful, and under embarrassing cirumstances, the institution has gradually grown strong, so that by the generosity of its friends, an eligible property has been secured, on one of the best and favored streets of the city. The new building, No. 265 Penn street, has an excellent Reading Room for all classes, also provision is made for night classes, for those whose work occupies them all day, in Mathematics, German, &c. This is practical work for Christians and commends itself.

Reference to this institution of the Episcopal Church, in this city, uggests the naming of some facts coned with the past growth of this denomination in our midst, which are both interesting, suggestive, and will doubtless surprise many of our readers. At the present writing there are ten church edifices, and twelve resident clergymen. Considering that not many years ago there were only two churches in this city, and one in Allegheny, the rapid growth of this body has been remarkable, and well may be a matter of inquiry by other denominations. There is no doubt an element of power in well organized efforts and rigid system, associated with power to direct and lead in the progressive movements of denominational aggression. This is being developed under the direction of the excellent Bishop KERFOOT of this Diocese.

Important movements have been made of late in the establishment of Mission Sunday Schools, and missionary labor for the benefit of colored people. There are now five Mission Sunday Schools, four of them established within six months, with an aggregate attendance of five hundred and fifty scholars. There is also a day school for colored children, with an attendance of over one hundred, and a night school for adults of this class with sixty pupils. Among the foremost benevolent movements of this denomination was the establishment of a Church Home, with provision to care for children and aged women. There are now about sixty children in this excellent institution.

The successful missionary efforts of the City Missionary Society of this denomination, are fresh in the mind of the public, through the labors of a Lay Missionary, Mr. MORRIS, who gave a large part of his time last winter in providing relief for the poor of our city. The movement was all the more praiseworthy, because the deserving poor of all denominations were supplied with means to releve their wants. This Society has charge of all the missions not conducted by the parishes seperately. It is the purpose of this society to send into the field a clerical Missionary, as soon as suitable arrangements are made for this growing field of labor.

We are unable to give full details of the work going on in the respective parishes, but present such information as we have at hand. St. Paul's Church, besides the usual services, devotes Sabbath evenings to holding a special service for colored people, and the afternoon to Sunday School purposes. Services are also held in the Ninth ward Mission building in connection with the school exercises. The attractive free Choral services every Sabbath afternoon at Trinity Church, in connection with the regular stated services, are familiar to the public. And the same may be said of St. James Church, Fifth ward. In the latter parish, parochial work has been enlarged and carried on with great vigor and success. The same may be said of St. Peter's, St. Andrew's, of this city, and St. John's of Lawrenceville, each of which are doing a good work in their respective parishes. Sewing schools, &c., are also carried on in connection with the various Mission Sunday Schools.

Christ Church, on East Common, Allegheny City, is about to be enlarged so as to seat comfortably eight hundred persons, and greatly beautified throughout. St. John's has had its accommodations considerably increased. Calvary Church, East Liberty, has paid off its debt, and was duly consecrated sometime since. St. Mark's Church, Birmingham, has begun a new and vigorous life, under its efficient and excellent minister. The new church on Mount Washington is growing, and promises much usefulness. From these brief notes of the various Episcopal churches in this community, there are indications that this denomination has entered upon a new era of prosperity.

JUST now the country is shocked by repeated instances of special brutality exercised by parents towards their children under pretense of family government. It may reasonably be doubted whether on the whole parental violence has increased. It is safe to conclude that some of the worst cases have, owing to concatenations of circumstances, been recently brought to light. It is graceful and poetic to speak of the beauty and strength of the love of parents for offspring. That such love really exists, and frequently in the most excellent sense, does not admit of contradiction. But, if the children should be adduced as witnesses, and tell all they have felt of parental brutality, the other side would stand out in revolting contrast. Multitudes of fathers and mothers are so badly organized that they are incapable of employing any other sort of discipline than force. Their usual method is a word and a blow, and much of the time the blow comes first. Parental authority is, in its very nature, necessarily irresponsible to a large extent. It sounds pleasant to say that the love that comes with children constitutes their best protection against abuse. But if this be so, there are thousands of cases in which the lot of the little ones is deplorable enough.

Mexican "Daughters of the Regiment."

On the 5th instant a finely equipped infantry force of three hundred and ten men (and almost as many women) left here to join Escobedo. A cavalry escort, conducting a large amount of money, left at the same time. The money is to pay off the army. The women part of the infantry force is useful in various ways. It serves to aid the enemy by making the soldiers forget to do their duty, to enervate them, to hamper their march, to share their scanty rations, and to make every trooper a fancy man in a brothel. The pertinacity with which this infantry force follows the army is something admirable. I have seen quite a body of them trot on foot eighteen leagues in a day, and then continue the march, of from ten to sixteen leagues, for many days together. They stand it better than horses. One of the most experienced soldiers of the republic told me that in all his campaigns he never knew a woman to get tired, even when he has seen his soldiers dropping in the road from fatigue. When one of them gives birth to a child on the roadside her companions huddle around her and render her the required assistance. One of them takes the child and trots along with it, while the mother, properly bandaged, continues the march, arriving at the halting place perhaps two or three hours after the army reaches it.—San Luis Potosi, March 7, cor.' N. Y. Herald.

SPLIT.—A split is said to have occurred between the Liberals of the British Parliament, on the subject of the Reform bill. The more advanced and radical wing demand an unrestricted manhood suffrage, while the moderates, under the leadership of Gladstone, are willing to accept a franchise limited by qualifications, like those embraced in the act defeated last year. In view of this unexpected conflict of ideas—following closely upon what was supposed to be a decisive agreement to oppose the bill brought in by D'Israeli—the prospects of the Derby Cabinet are brightening, and its supporters begin to hope that it may yet be saved from dissolution. Pity the reformers of England do not see the force and truth of the adage, that "a half loaf is better than a bread." A campaign is seldom won in a single battle; and where the traditions and prejudices of centuries are to overcome, the work must be accomplished by gradual and systematic approaches.

THE RETURNS of the New York census of 1865 have recently been published. They indicate a slight decline in the population of the entire State, as well as of the leading city, as compared with the returns of 1860. This unexpected result is probably owing in part to the fact that while the compensation of the United States marshals and assistant marshals was regulated by the number of persons returned, the State census-takers were paid by the day. It is also probable that in 1865, after the terrors of the draft and the pressure of the internal revenue taxation had been felt, there was a great disposition among the heads of families to make false or incomplete statements.

It cannot be denied that this practice was an abuse.

EVERY newspaper reader has heard of the juvenile descendant of the unfortunate Iturbide, who was abducted from his parents, and adopted by the childless Maximilian as heir apparent to the imperial throne of Mexico. Some two months since Max. sent the boy to France, but it so happened that his parents were at Havana when the lad arrived, in charge of his aunt. Madame Iturbide, (who was a Miss Green, of Georgetown,) at once claimed her child, and the little Prince has consequently been brought to Washington. He has had a princely education in Mexico, that is, he has been permitted to act in accordance with his own will and pleasure.

MR. W. MILLER SAYS:

PITTSBURGH, September 4, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents: I think I am only doing the part of a good citizen when I testify to the great benefits received by me from the use of your Stomach Bitters during the last five years. Sojourning for a time in the oil regions, in 1861, I had a severe billious attack, which, in connection with dyspepsia, left me in a very weak condition. I was advised to try your Bitters, and, having procured a bottle, found that they worked like a charm upon me, eight pounds having been added to my weight in the space of one week, and new life seemed to have been infused into my system, so much so that I have been induced to use them every summer since that time. As a tonic, I think they are invaluable.

This summer, having had a similar attack, (and as before, much reduced,) although under the treatment of an A No. 1 physician, I was again obliged to have recourse to the old Bitters, and with the same good result, having gained six pounds within a few days. I purchased a half dozen bottles a few weeks since, and purpose to use them regularly as a tonic.

Wishing you every success, I remain,
Yours, gratefully,
WILLIAM MILLER.

HELMBOLD'S
Concentrated Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

Eradicates ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE DISEASES of the THROAT, NOSE, EYES, EYELIDS, SCALP and SKIN,

Which so disfigure the appearance, PURGING the evil effects of mercury and removing all taints, the remnants of DISEASES, hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by ADULTS and CHILDREN with perfect safety.

TWO TABLE SPOONFULS of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoctions as usually made.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla in certain affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken, and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

MONDAY, APRIL 15, 1867.

The Widows' Home.

About a year ago, the ladies of the Allegheny Relief Association inaugurated measures to procure a lot and buildings suitable for a Widows' Home. An appeal was made to the public, and an act of incorporation obtained from the Legislature.

A committee of the following persons was appointed to make necessary arrangements, to collect funds, and to purchase property:

F. R. Brunot, Esq.,	Mrs. Gen. Robinson,
Jas. Marshall, Esq.,	Mrs. F. R. Brunot,
Jas. Park, Jr., Esq.,	Mrs. Dr. Trevor,
Alex. Nimick, Esq.,	Mrs. R. D. Thompson,
Allen Kramer, Esq.,	Mrs. J. F. McLaren.

During the summer the committe purchased the old Orphans' Asylum, which was about to be vacated, for the sum of $15,000, which sum has been subscribed.

The property is held by the Allegheny Widows' Home Association, which is composed of the Relief Society, and the institution is managed by an executive committee of nine ladies, of whom not more than one-third are to be members of the same religious denomination.

The object is to provide a home at a merely nominal rent, which shall be enough to pay contingent expenses, for such poor persons, of the Protestant faith, as are unable to pay an ordinary rent, giving the preference to widows with young children.

To those who have generously contributed to this charity, the committee would report that the Home is occupied by a large number of grateful inmates. Some are very old. Their days of labor are over. They pray and wait for a better Home. But the large proportion are widows, some the widows of soldiers, struggling to feed and clothe their little ones.

One, who has three children of her own, has a school of eighteen, for each of whom she receives a dollar a month. She teaches the children living in the Home gratuitously, and has her school room free of rent. A number are obliged to be out all day at work, and in this way their children are protected and taught. There is also a Sunday school and prayer meeting in the building, and it is hoped that religious influences are thrown around the children here which will save them from the contaminating influences to which, from their poverty, they might otherwise be exposed.

The Home being local in its design, the subscription book was only opened to citizens of Allegheny. In publishing the subscribers' names, the Executive Committee offer as apology their desire to show how generously this call has been responded to, and, by the strictness of the list, how large the number of citizens of Allegheny to whom we now appeal for contributions to erect additional buildings, which are much needed on the lot, where there is abundance of room for the purpose.

We hope this work will commend itself to the sympathies and benefactions of those who have abundant means, and that thousands will yet be raised to complete and beautify a place which gives independent and separate homes to so many families of God's poor, His widows and orphans, whom he has promised to bless. Every one who casts into this treasury of the Lord is a co-worker with Him, and verily will receive his reward.

List of subscriptions duly made for the Widows' Home:

Don't Eat Raw Ham.

That the flesh of the hog frequently contains a parasitical insect is now pretty thoroughly settled. That this parasite is capable of being transferred to the tissues of the human frame, producing a fearful disease termed trichinosis, has been proven beyond a doubt. There are scores of people in every community who have given up the use of pork entirely since this astonishing discovery, and scores of others who eat the flesh of swine with considerable latent fear. The lesson to be drawn from the many cases of trichinosis which have occurred in different parts of the country, may be summed up in the four words which head this item. While authorities differ in many other things with regard to this new and ugly disease, all agree that if ham and pork are thoroughly cooked, there is no danger in eating either. Sometimes the disease has been communicated by eating imperfectly cured "dried beef," but here, too, all danger disappears when the beef is well cooked. These, and other facts of especial interest to the medical profession, are admirably set forth in a communication to the New York Medical Record, by Dr. Ristine of Marion, Iowa, who has treated quite a number of cases of trichnosis. Dr. Ristine sums up the matter as follows:

1. That symptoms indicating the presence of young trichinæ in the tissues are observed as early or earlier than the fourth day after the ingestion of the trichinous meat.
2. That cysts are formed as early as the twenty-fifth day.
3. That, other things being equal, the severity of the symptoms is in direct proportion to the amount of trichinous meat eaten.
4. That an active cathartic given while the worms are still in the intestinal canal is effective to a certain degree in causing their expulsion and mitigating the severity of the disease.
5. That youth affords no immunity from the effects of the disease.
6. That salting and smoking do not destroy the vitality of the parasite.
7. That thorough cooking accomplishes this object.

Suicide—An Ex-Huckster Gets Tired of Life, and Soothes his Troubles With Arsenic.

The rage for suicide seems to be on the increase in our city, while homicides are getting very scarce. Already this year a number of the former have occurred, while only three or four of the latter have taken place. Yesterday morning another "felo de se" was added to the list.

For some time past George J. Miller, who was pretty well known throughout the city, and who had been very successful in the huckster business, has been losing in business and had given up to drinking very hard. His wife and him had several difficulties in regard to his intemperate habits and she had threatened to leave him. This acted upon his mind, and he had several times when drunk threatened to destroy himself.

Yesterday morning, at about 12 o'clock, he went into Bart's grocery, which is on the corner of Marshall and Campbell streets, and asked Mrs. Bart about a grocery bill which he owed her husband, and which he said he wanted to pay. While he was conversing with her she noticed him eating a white powder out of a paper that he held in his hand. Shortly afterwards he was taken sick and vomited.

He then went from Bart's over to P. Deitzman's store, on the opposite corner, and after remaining in the store a few minutes went back to the stable. Shortly afterward Mrs. Deitzman heard somebody groaning very loudly in the stable, but she paid no attention to it. At about 2 o'clock a negro girl went out to the stable and there discovered Miller dead.

Coroner Moore was sent for and held an inquest, the jury returning a verdict of suicide.

Deceased was about fifty years of age, and was hump-shouldered and slightly lame of one leg. He leaves a wife and one child.—Louisville Courier.

A Mexican Story.

An extraordinary story comes from Mexico relative to flour. It appears that an old miller in that locality had a very beautiful young wife, of whom he was jealous in the extreme, and took out his soulagement of that feeling in thwacking the young being. There was a certain cook, of the male species, young, handsome and fat, who came to the mill from the hotel to buy flour, and hearing the distress of the lovely one first, and seeing her second, became of course, dreadfully in love. Some one told the miller. All the town began to talk of the fact, and to laugh at the floury one. One day the cook and the lovely one disappeared, and merrily laughed the Mexicans, at the Miller's misfortune—nothing went down but the scandal of the elopement of the miller's wife and the cook. The miller scowled vengefully upon all the town, and so time passed by; nothing more was heard of the cook and the miller's wife by any one. Two years after the miller was pleased to die, and to inform the world in a paper, which was left to be opened after his death, and to be published in the town, that the cook and his (the miller's) wife had, by his planning, eloped into an oven two years since and been baked; and that he would have got rid of them elsewise but for the jeering of the public; therefore he had ground them up in a large mass of corn, which the townspeople were pleased to compliment him for, as being exceedingly rich and nutritious, and he only hopes that they will enjoy the reminiscence as much as he did the remainder of his life that he was spared, whenever he looked upon a townsman.

—One of the front walls of the Lindel House, St. Louis, is still standing, and the marble of which it is built is worth $120,000; but as it is very high and liable to fall at any time, the contractors for the new hotel are in a quandary how to save the materials, as the laborers will not risk their lives on it, and to pull it down by means of ropes would break and destroy the marble.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, FREE OF CHARGE. Please enclose a post-paid envelope addressed to yourself.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Saturday, April 13, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 135¾; Eighty-one bonds, 109; Five Twenties, 1862, 109¾; do, 1864, 107¼; Five Twenties, 1865, 108¾; Ten Forties, 97½; Seven Thirties, 106; do 2d and 3d issue, 105¾; 5-20 Consols, '65, 107¼. Michigan Southern Railroad, 68¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 69¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 94¼ bid; Erie, 57¼; Chicago and Rock Island, —; Chicago and Northwestern, 32¼; do preferred, 60¾; New York Central, 98¾; Reading, 99¾.

The gold market remained firm all day at 135¾. Governments have slightly improved on Five Twenties of 1862 and 1865, May and November; the balance of the list is unchanged. Railroads are all better, Cleveland & Pittsburgh has advanced 3¾, Fort Wayne & Chicago 3¼. North Western after being 33, declined to 32½—an improvement of ½ on yesterday. New York Central declined 1¼, under the presumption that the bill to increase the rate of fare could not be passed over the Governor's veto. Reading advanced 1½. The strongest stock on the whole list is Fort Wayne; there are but about 2000 shares held by weak speculators, and in order to bring the new stock on the market at par, it will be necessary for the management to buy up the floating stock and advance the price. The stock sold at 93¾ this morning, but 94¼ is now bid without bringing out any sellers.

Stock orders will be promptly executed on commission at the Banking House of Ph. R. Mertz, 118 Wood street.

James T. Brady & Co. report government bonds in New York to-day, as follows:

—The Chicago Republican, in referring to the present excited and inflated condition of the Flour and Grain markets, says:

"One year ago to-day gold was 127¼, and to-day, by the latest report, it is quoted at 135¾. The difference in the premium on gold is not so great as to cause such a wide variance in prices of produce as compared with last year. The question arises, are we on the eve of a commercial panic? which is property, whether produce, which is perishable, or real estate, better than money, such as we have it, in the shape of national bank issues or government securities? Where is the secret spring of the extraordinary advance in prices? Has a "corner" on grain been effected in Liverpool, New York, and Chicago simultaneously? Or is a general European war "considered imminent," as reported by the foreign dispatches to-day, during which fields will be laid desolate, and crops prospective destroyed? Or is the Secretary of the Treasury secretly contracting the currency to the extent of some three millions of dollars per month, which he has the power to do, in consequence of which a general financial crash among rash speculators is anticipated? We leave our readers to solve these questions for themselves.

—The quarterly statement for April 1 of the National banks of the city of New York shows a decrease of $25,000,000 in their resources compared with their January statement. The decrease is distributed about as follows: In loans and discounts, $5,000,000; in specie, $5,000,000; in compound interest notes, $3,000,000; in other lawful money, $7,000,000; in miscellaneous items, $5,000,000. The corresponding decrease in liabilities is chiefly in deposits and balances due to banks.

—The late rise in gold has again upset mercantile calculations to such an extent as to seriously damage general trade, which has given decided indications during the past few days of a spirited revival. This advance causes holders of goods to regret having made any concessions in prices, and to unsettle that harmony and confidence which was beginning to manifest itself between buyer and seller. The fluctuations in values are the bane of legitimate business, and redound to the benefit of nobody outside of the clique of speculators. The past two or three days have made the latter rejoice, while the consumers are again holding back to see whether the tide of affairs will resume its former channel. The demand for money is active at 7 per cent. for temporary loans on good stock collaterals. First-class commercial paper at short time is placed at 7 to 9 per cent. per annum discount.—Phila. Press.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Saturday, April 13, 1867.

There was considerable excitement in Flour and Grain during the greater of the week which has just closed, but to-day, under the influence of the advices from Chicago on Friday, the "flurry" seemed to be subsiding, and the feeling prevails to some extent that a reaction will now set in. In other articles, there has been a fair volume of business in the aggregate, without however any material changes in value.

GRAIN—Wheat is in limited supply and firm. Oats coming in more liberally but unchanged; sale of 1 car, in elevator, at 65—small sales in store, at 70. Corn is in demand and limited supply; prime Yellow would sell readily at $1, on track—sales in store, at $1,10 to $1,12. Rye is in demand at $1,50. Barley is scarce and in demand.

FLOUR—Is less excited but firm and unchanged. We continue to quote at $14¼ to $14¾ for good to choice Spring Wheat; $15½ to $16 for Winter Wheat; and $18 to $19 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour firm at $8,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, with regular jobbing sales at 10 to 10½c for Shoulders; 11½ to 12 for Ribbed Sides; 13¼ to 13½ for Clear Sides; 15¼ to 16 for Plain Sugar Cured, and 16½c to 17c for Canvassed Hams. Dried Beef, 23. Lard, 13¼ to 13½, and Mess Pork, $23,50.

OIL—Lard Oil is in fair demand and firm at $1,10 for No. 1, and 90c for No.2.

SEEDS—Cloverseed is scarce and higher and we can report sales, in store, at $13,50 to $14. Timothy Seed is quiet and unchanged at $3 to $3,25. Sale of 26 bushels Flaxseed at $3,10—an advance.

POTATOES—Steady but the supply is equal to the demand; sales of 150 bushels Peach Blows, in store, at $1; and 200 do at 95c per bushel.

GREEN APPLES—Quiet and unchanged; sales of common to fair at $3,50 to $4,50, and choice at $5,50 to $6.

BUTTER—Is coming in quite freely, and as a consequence, the market is weak with a drooping tendency. We now quote prime Roll at 33c to 35c.

EGGS—In good demand at 23c.

HAY—Prime Timothy Hay is in demand and firm, while common is dull.

BEANS—Prime small white are selling in store at $2,75 per bush.

SORGHUM—Sales at 45c to 50c.

LIME—Sales in store, at $2 per bbl.

PIG LEAD—Firm; sales 1000 pigs at 10¼.

DRIED FRUIT—Dull and unchanged.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Saturday, April 13, 1867.

CRUDE—The market was again moderately active and steady to-day, though prices are without quotatable change—6¾ to 7c. Sale of 6000 barrels, to be delivered on present water, at 6¾c; 1500 for April, buyer's option, at 7 and 1100 (40 to 44 gravity) on spot, at 7. There is some inquiry future delivery—say for May and June, with 7c offered, and possibly 7¼c could be obtained, but as a general thing, sellers do not seem inclined to contract ahead to any extent at present prices. Compared with the early part of the week, the market is a little stronger and prices are a shade better, though, it was occasioned mainly by tank buyers, who are anxious to fill their tanks at present prices. There is nothing in the eastern or foreign advices to warrant an improvement here, and it is argued, and with good reason, too, that if it had not been for speculators, the market to-day would not be above 6c, if that. At Oil City, holders also have stiffened up considerably, and an advance of from 25 to 30c per bbl was established during the week.

REFINED—There has been rather more inquiry for bonded oil during the last day or two, and if anything, prices are a shade better. We can report a sale of five thousand barrels, standard white, to be delivered from June to October, at 31—1000 June, 1000 July, 1000 Aug., 1000 Sept., and 1000 for Oct., also, 1000 standard white, for all the year, buyer's option, at 33—delivered in Philadelphia. Spot oil, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 28 for prime light straw to white, and 27 to 27½ for standard white—that is, there are offers to buy at these figures, though there are but few if any sellers. Free oil is dull and unchanged; may be quoted at 40 to 41, in fifty or one hundred barrel lots, and 41 to 42 in a small way.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro.	850	Mawhinney & Co	1000
Haldeman &	1800	R. D. Cochran	2500
John Benn	900	Johnston & Paine	54

Total	7,309
Total Receipts for the week	68,626

New York Financial Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 13.—The money market was easy towards the close of bank hours, and first class borrowers offered money at 6 per cent. on stock collaterals, and on Governments at 5@6 per cent. WEEKLY REVIEW OF WHOLESALE MARKET.

The excitement in Flour has continued, and there has been a further advance of 50c @$1. The advanced prices have checked the consumption. The stock is slightly reduced, with moderate arrivals in prospect. The tendency is up at the close, with a good business in California and Oregon flour, which is becoming popular with the trade. Wheat fluctuated somewhat, although prices are higher at the close, particularly for white, which is taken freely. Large sales of California and Oregon at $2,25@3,40, closing at the extreme rates. The stock was reduced to about one million bushels sound wheat; also considerable inferior spring remains, which is unsaleable. Rye advanced, with a large business. Closes strong. The stock was reduced to 320,000 bushels, which is large for the season. Barley has been in fair demand, and sold at irregular prices for bonded improved, while free has declined. The stock is reduced to less than six hundred thousand bushels. Oats has been in brisk demand, and advanced materially; at the close there was a strong stock of about 1,500,000 bushels, an annual supply for the season. Corn has been in active demand, and excited at times, closing buoyant; the stock was reduced to 1,670,000 bushels. Pork has been offered freely, fluctuated rapidly, and declined at the concession; the demand was quite spirited. Beef advanced; the stock was almost exhausted. Cotton has been unsettled, with only a moderate business; holders were not willing to submit to the decline, and the business has been with manufacturers and exporters, with steady prices and a fair trade. Rio coffee at easier rates; fair to prime 17¼@19½c There was a moderate business in petroleum; at the close there was some inquiry for export on speculation; crude was quoted at about 16½c, and refined in bond at 27¼c, for standard. Whisky dull, and closed at $2,30 for western in bond; trade was chiefly confined to contraband.

Cincinnati Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, April 13.—Flour unchanged and the demand continues local and limited; Superfine $11@12; trade brands $13@16, and fancy $16@18. No good Wheat in the market and small lots of inferior offering only; nothing transpired to indicate any change in prices. Corn dull; prices 2@3c lower; No. 1 sold at 85c in elevator and 98c in sacks, but there was a firm feeling on the part of holders at the close, but no improvement in the demand. Oats very dull; No. 1 offered at 67c. Rye and Barley nominally unchanged. Whisky dull at 28c in bond. Cotton dull, with no demand; prices nominal; middling could have been bought at 25c. Bulk Meats held at 8@10c. Bacon 9¼, 11½@12½c for Hams, 13 @13½c for plain and 15@15½c for sugar cured. Lard held rather firmly at 12½@ 13c, but 100 tierces were procured at 12½c. RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with but ten feet in the channel by the Allegheny marks. The weather yesterday was cloudy and warm with every appearance of more rain.

The Ezra Porter, from Cincinnati, is the only arrival, with a good trip, and the Ida Rees, for Louisville, is the only transient departure. The Argosy, from Cincinnati, and the Glasgow, from St. Louis, are among the first boats due.

The Lorena, Capt. Shuman, and the Glendale, Capt. Hare, are both announced for St. Louis forthwith. The America will be the first boat out for New Orleans. Capt. Reed has deferred the departure of the Columbia for the Upper Mississippi until Thursday next.

The Argosy and Glasgow left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday, and the Kate Robinson was advertised to follow on Saturday. The towboats Bengal Tiger, Hercules, Resolute, Big Alps, Star, Tom Rees, and Eagle arrived at Louisville on Friday.

The receipts of the Great Republic from Pittsburgh to New Orleans, are reported at fifty-three thousand dollars.

The A J. Baker was working hard on Thursday to get off her barges, stuck on the rocks at the head of the canal at Louisville. As the river was rising there, she doubtless has them off before this.

The Savannah was the first arrival of the season at Dubuque. The excitement was great. The Times says: "Upon her hurricane deck stood the popular river veteran Capt. A. McGowan, and on the guards there stood "Judge" Bready, complacently smiling, as if mightily pleased with the honor of occupying the office of the pioneer boat of '67."

We make the following extract from a Cairo letter, in regard to the Great Republic: The Great Republic arrived here last night at 10 o'clock, about an hour behind the Kilgour. The heaters and air-pumps, or condensing apparatus, an account of the repairs on which you copied some days ago from an Orleans paper, and which had detained her in that city considerably beyond the time she expected to remain, had only been repaired in a temporary manner, as it was found necessary send to Pittsburgh, probably for some patterns, and the engineer intended to try to make the trip to St. Louis rather than detain the Republic in New Orleans. The repairs answered the purpose until the boat reached Donaldsonville, seventy-five miles above New Orleans, when the apparatus again became almost useless, and although partial repairs were again made a various times, the Republic has made the greater portion of the trip either on one wheel, or without the assistance of condensing apparatus, which, of course, very materially reduced her speed. With all this disadvantage, however, she has come to Cairo in five days, passing the P. W. Strader, J. C. Swon, and a host of similar fry; and, during those five days, has discharged a large quantity of way freight at Natchez, Vicksburg, Lake Providence, Memphis and Hickman. She has 750 boxes of oranges and lemons, 48 beer kegs, 1 horse, 1 buggy, 1 bale merchandise and 5 boxes for St. Louis, and is crowded with passengers. Her receipts for the trip from Pittsburgh to New Orleans, were $53,000.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Saturday, says: The Dart came in from Pittsburgh yesterday with a tow of coal. The Argosy arrived from and returned to Pittsburgh yesterday, full of freight and people both ways. She reshipped for New Orleans on the Westmoreland, Memphis on the Armadillo, St. Louis on the Nightingale, and Nashville on the Emma Floyd. She has 150 tons of corn and flour engaged at Gallipolis. Her special agent, Jesse Burdsall, will have his frame office on the public landing space, in front of the Memphis Packet Company's office, completed to-day, where he will entertain his friends in good style.

The Argosy arrived at Cincinnati on Thursday night, and was advertised to leave for Pittsburgh on Friday, as was also the Kate Robinson, Sherman and Glasgow.

A Cairo telegram, under date of Thursday, says: The Great Republic passed up last night at 10 o'clock, full of passengers. She has 75 barrels of oranges and lemons, and a few suns of other freight. She has come the greater portion of the distance from New Orleans on one wheel. The engine condensing apparatus on the other being disabled. She has still come up inside of five days, and discharged freight at Natchez, Vicksburg, Lake Providence, Memphis and Hickman. The Alice V. and Kenton are well laden for New Orleans. The Bellevernon was also well ladened for Saint Louis. The Vernon has 300 passengers.

The question is often asked, "What is low-pressure?" Bigelow, in his history of the steam engine, says: "A low-pressure engine is one that is fitted with an apparatus for condensing the steam into water, so that a vaccum, nearly complete, is formed in one part of the cylinders; just before the stroke of the piston into that part takes place, the resistance of the atmosphere being thereby avoided, and steam of only a moderate pressure being required.

Capt. John A. Dales, late of the office of the Westmoreland, being still in ill health, is undergoing medical treatment at the Cleveland water-cure establishment.

The Commodore has been purchased by the Engineer's Department, United States, for $19,000, and will be used in navigating the Ohio.

Capt. Andy Frazier, late of the Nora, has taken command of the Rob Foy at Cincinnati, and will commence loading her for the Tennessee river, to run regularly in that trade, in connection with the Camelia, Captain G. W. Coffin.

The Cairo correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, contrasts the Great Republic and Richmond, as follows:

The two really great steamers alluded to seem to command the admiration of all classes, but, singularly enough, no comparison is ever drawn between the two. Each boat is perfect "in her way," and they appear so totally unlike as to render comparison almost impossible, except in some few particulars, as, for instance, the staterooms—those of the Richmond being far in advance of the Republic in point of size, but not in finish. The appearance of the cabin of the Richmond is extremely neat and chastely elegant, which, to some eyes conveys more beauty than the gorgeous and truly magnificent cabin of her rival. Thus each cabin is perfect after its own style. The outside appearance of the two steamers is quite as dissimilar as the inside, yet, to different tastes equally beautiful. The Republic is singular, almost odd, in her outside appearance, presenting the oft-times valuable charm of novelty, as she does not look like any other steamer afloat. The Richmond is finished on the outside almost the same as any other western steamer, with the exception of her observatory and position of her pilot house. But her extreme length and graceful outline give her a very beautiful appearance, making it almost impossible for an unprejudiced mind to decide between the two boats. The unprejudiced verdict seems therefore to be, that each boat is, in her peculiar style, perfect, and, thus far, unsurpassed.

A late Memphis paper says: The Great Republic will be here this morning, and with her will come that distinguished boat builder, Capt. C. W. Batchelor, who has projected and launched some of the finest vessels that have ploughed our "inland sea." We are happy to know that this veteran is in the enjoyment of robust health and promises to live many years in the enjoyment of the honors he has won, and many more he is designed to win.

The Julia No. 2 arrived at Cincinnati from Wabash River on Thursday, and is announced to load for Nashville. She had over three hundred tons of bulk meat.

The St. Louis Democrat says: G. G. Russell is, or very lately was, in Pittsburgh, his purpose being to procure still another towboat for the Mississippi Valley Transportation Company. It is conjectured that he may have purchased that splendid new towboat Boaz, for which the owners asked $60,000. We heard it reliably stated that within the last six months a towboat and barges realized on the round trip from this to New Orleans and back a profit of $17,000, her total receipts being $29,000. This was towing barges to some purpose. No wonder there is talk of a St. Louis and Memphis Towing Company. No wonder John Anawalt has gone into the towing business between Pittsburgh and St. Louis. His Wild Duck and barges, with a great amount of freight, came in yesterday.

The stage of water along the lower Mississippi is exciting unusual interest and attention. The floods of winter along our water courses have extended to the lower country, overflowing and devastating the land in all directions. Huge crevasses have broken through the levees, and the settlement of De Soto, opposite Vicksburg—the locality of that canal that was attempted to be run around Vicksburg—has been overflowed, and all the inhabitants thereof were drowned. It was a negro rendezvous, or plantation, and no doubt the ditch encompassed their destruction. They were surrounded by water.
